We've laid the foundations, now its time to build the mansion

I don't want to start a band, just want the grand in the hand, make people understand.

Good Bad Bastards

Been battling a mean violent savage sea for a long long time now and can finally see a pleasant patch on the horizon.

The development
is developing, the formula is being formulated...

Proud to be ugly.
Don't tell me
mother I said so.

Fiercely independant.
You either like us
or you don't.

Man of my word,
like to be heard.

Me not silly. Tired of playing with my willy

This is the end of the beginning
